

TIPS TO AVOID HOLIDAY ILLNESSES

The last thing you want whilst on your holiday is to get sick, especially with illnesses that confine you to your hotel room or apartment.

Simple tips to follow to make sure you avoid illness whilst abroad:

Long haul flights:

- Stand up, walk/stretch for a few minutes at least every hour

- Avoid consuming excessive amounts of alcohol
- Do not overeat during the flight
- To minimise jet lag, enjoy a light diet and good nights sleep at your destination

Food & drink

Don't:

- Drink tap water by the glass or in mixed drinks (including ice made from tap water)
- Brush your teeth using tap water
- Eat raw vegetables including salads, fruits unless they have a thick, disposable outside covering

www.simpsonmillar.co.uk
Telephone 0870 855 1200

Don't continued..

- Eat rare, raw meat or fish. Make sure all meat and fish are cooked thoroughly
- Eat dairy products from small vendors, or any dairy products that have been left out in the sun
- Eat food that has been kept warm
- If you become ill do not prepare or handle food for other people as you can spread your illness

Do:

- Drink carbonated water, bottled or canned beverages as opposed to tap water
- Drink hot beverages as they are relatively safe even if full boiling is not assured
- Keep hydrated – if you are suffering from dehydration drink fruit juice (canned or boiled) or bottled water
- Wash your hands frequently

This guide contains information on current legal issues applicable at the time of printing. Note there may have been changes subsequently which have not been incorporated in to the material. This guide is intended for information purposes only and its content should not be applied to any particular set of facts or relied upon without legal or other professional advice. For further information on how we can help you please contact:

Lisa Sheldon
Partner
Tel: 0844 858 3300
Email: lisa.sheldon@simpsonmillar.co.uk